Mr. Frank Russell returned yesterday from a trip to Indiana, where he went to attend the funeral of his brother Will.

The Hesperians are requested to meet at the residence of the Miss Neelys at 417 N. Wabash avenue this evening, Dec. 7.

Rev. F. S. McCabe, D. D., is expected on the train this morning from Topeka. He comes down to spend a week with his sister, Mrs. James Todd.

Mr. Goble, formerly a law partner of the Carlisle Brothers at Covington, accompanied by Mr. Hill of same city, are paying the former gentlemen a visit.

Chas. L. Hungeate, of Reno county, formerly in the dry goods business here, was down yesterday looking at the wonderful improvements in the metropolis.

Judge Blackburn, accompanied by W. H. McDaniel, a hardware merchant from Anthony, made us a call yesterday. The judge was enroute for Arkansas City.

Mrs. W. W. Long and Mrs. C. R. Miller and Mr. M. W. Long returned yesterday morning from a short visit to the windy wonder at the mouth of the Kaw.

Kassell has just received probably the finest and largest stock of diamonds ever brought to the market. One estimate of the peculiar brilliance runs up to about $1,200.

Prof. Fritchett, of St. Louis, Chicago and the east last evening. He will visit Philadelphia before his return home, and our guess is that he will not come back alone.

Messrs. Miller and Silver a short time ago began the manufacture of Silver's Invalid Bulbometer last spring at 577 West Douglas, and already they are kept busy filling orders.

A number of Belle Plaine people were in the city yesterday. O. C. Nadin, M. G. Yost and M. E. Jones, stopped at the Tremont; Mrs. L. M. St. Clair and Mrs. E. L. D. Gow at the Manhattan.

Mr. D. Sherman Foster and Miss Lettie V. Winter, two of Cheney's society young people, were united in marriage at the parlors of the Douglas Avenue house in this city yesterday by the Rev. H. Winslow Abbott.

The Eagle brings to its readers this morning the entire message of President Cleveland, delivered to congress yesterday afternoon. It is a very long state paper and is given to the excitement of nearly all other news items.

Mr. A. M. Collett, of Clinton county, Ohio, is in the city on a prospecting tour. He is an uncle of the real estate dealer, Mr. W. C. McCune, and came here he says expecting to find a lively city and is satisfied that he has.

Dr. G. W. Cox, of Quincy, Ill., who has been investing in Wichita quite extensively, and of whom we quoted an article from the Quincy Herald last week highly complimentary, called yesterday. He will be a resident of Wichita hereafter.

Cordray's great electric clock is now on its way to Wichita, and will be placed on exhibition in the vacant store room next to Catte's bank, corner of Main and Douglas avenues. It is one of the largest and finest exclusive clocks in the world.

A society gentleman bought an elegant gold watch yesterday at a jewelry store in the city which he will send to his best girl so she can receive it on Christmas morning. She lives far, far away. He did not mean to let the little scheme out but the very air whips it out.

Mr. Cash Henderson, of the New York store, and who uses the largest and finest lot of Wilton carpets, of beautiful designs, warranted to last a lifetime, and at New York prices, ever brought to the west. Cash knows what a true Wilton is.

SCHOOL BOARD.

The school board met last evening in the city hall with Col. H. L. Taylor in the chair and members Lewis, Wingard, Brown, Campbell, Caldwell, Shannon and Allen present. Superintendent Childister in his report stated that there were in the public school 2,400 students in daily attendance.

The fifth ward attendance has greatly increased since school commenced in the new building. The number now enrolled is 393. A room to accommodate the increase of students in the third ward has been secured on Oak street. There has been some trouble during the last few days to properly heat the Lincoln School building. The professor stated that his time so far has been greatly occupied in dividing the students for the different buildings and rooms. He was desirous to spend more time among the teachers and in strictly professional work and would do so as soon as he could. He said that his office work had become very arduous and he wished to secure some one to do clerical work.

Mr. Campbell as chairman of the committee on teachers and salaries stated that Miss Vance had been appointed to fill the vacancy made by the dismissal of Miss Moore. The resignation of Miss Neely and Prof. Pence was accepted. The former has accepted a more remunerative position in the city. The resignation of the latter will take effect the first of next month when he will turn to the duties of county superintendent. He recommended that the salaries of Misses Leach, Dougherty be increased to $55 per month and that of Miss Brook to $50 per month. Mr. J. T. Sutton had been employed to take charge of the pupils sent to the room on Oak street. The report was accepted.

Col. Lewis moved that the examining committee consist of Messrs. Hendryx, Harper and Hewitt. Carried. If any one of the committee should be unable to serve the vacancy should be filled by the committee on teachers and salaries.

Mr. Campbell moved that a committee on ways and means and board treasurer secure immediately all school money from county treasurer and place it on interest. He thought there was near $15,000 of school money in the hands of the county treasurer. His motion prevailed and Col. Lewis asked the chair to furnish a certified copy of the motion.

A bill was read asking the board to pay Miss Moore her regular salary for this month—$40. Upon motion of Campbell it was referred to the committee on teachers and salaries. That committee consists of Campbell and Caldwell.

Miss S. Medley, who has been teaching in the primary grade in the Fourth ward, was promoted. Her former position will be occupied by Miss Mason.

The following bills were allowed:

The chairman was instructed to appoint a superintendent of buildings and grounds. A holiday vacation of one week was given.

MRS. LEASE'S LECTURE.

Last evening Mrs. Lease delivered a lecture at Memorial hall before the Woman's Suffrage society. The entertainment and meetings at the other public assembly rooms of the city, no doubt, attracted many persons from this most excellent lecture and caused the speaker to be greeted by a smaller house than she would had her lecture been given upon another occasion. Still there was a good sized crowd, composed of persons who came more for the benefit to be derived from the clever treatment of the subject to be expected from this gifted woman than from mere idle curiosity.

Mrs. Collins, after the meeting was called to order, arose and read a paper favoring the extension to woman of the right of suffrage in municipal affairs and giving the reasons why she believed this matter of such importance. In her comments she referred to the good results that might be expected from allowing woman a voice in the management of school affairs and giving her a place upon the school boards.

She then introduced Mrs. Lease in a few words and said she was about to deliver a "regular woman's suffrage speech."

She introduced her lecture by referring to the pleasure it gave her to speak to the society for the first time since her election to its presidency. After paying a glowing tribute to the state of Kansas and briefly reviewing its early history, she launched out upon many of the important political questions of the day and gave their application to the woman's suffrage question.

Her speech, which was delivered in a rich, clear voice, though flowery, was forcible and impressive. At times she rose to a beauty and eloquence that elicited expressions of the highest appreciation and applause from the audience.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

The Casino Opera Company, which opened last evening a week's engagement, promises to be a most successful attraction.

Last evening La Mascotte was put upon the stage in a most complete and attractive manner and was received with applause by the large audience.

The cast was unusually good, and far better than might be expected in a cheap priced entertainment. Miss Harvey played Bettina, Miss Hatcher the Princess, Mr. Paxton Pippo, Mr. Dixon Lorenzo, and Mr. Palmer, Recco. All without an exception were good.

The Mascolo will be the attraction tonight and the company, it is said, will put the opera upon the stage in first-class style.

THE GREAT REVIVAL.

Sunday was a great day for Emporia Avenue M. E. Church. Large audiences greeted the evangelist, Mrs. Smith, who preached well and at times grew eloquent in presenting the great truths of the Bible, which she does with earnestness and simplicity. Thirty-two persons united with the church, which makes forty-two since the meeting began. Meeting was announced for Tuesday at 2 p. m., and every evening during the week. This is now becoming one of the most active and earnest churches in the city, and are noted for their Christian friendliness and the cordiality with which they receive strangers. If you want a seat go early and you will receive a hearty welcome.

OPENING OF THE MUSEUM.

Yesterday afternoon the museum opened to a good-sized crowd, who had come in reply to the invitations sent out.

In the first room the living curiosities held their reception. The Dufranes, Frank and Lina, attracted no little attention by their remarkable feat of eating glass. On the stand opposite was Capt. Ureck, the Australian giant, who loomed up to the height of almost eight feet; by his side was his wife, Zola Zurgara, a beautiful circassian woman. Upon their right were Mongo Park the leopard boy; and Major Lars, a mite of creation.

Upon the stage, Mr. Dufrane, the human sword scabbard, and Mr. Hewes the magician interested the audience.

Mr. Hewes the lecturer gave a very interesting and instructive talk upon the different curiosities.

The little gem of a parlor on the right of the stage was quite a pleasant and favorite place of resting and conversation for the ladies.

An attractive and interesting program in which many good artists took part was rendered and well received by the audience. Last evening the house was crowded to its utmost capacity, and at an early hour the auditorium of the theater was packed. The entertainment throughout gave the most general satisfaction and bids fair now that the museum is permanently established to mark an epoch in amusements of the city.

Y. M. C. A. AUXILIARY.

The ladies auxiliary to the Young Men's Christian Association held their regular quarterly meeting at the rooms last night. After the regular business had been transacted the matter of holding "open house" on New Year's day was considered. A motion was made and carried that the association throw its doors open to the young men of the city on New Year's day from 2 p. m. to 9 p. m. Committees were appointed to secure the services of 75 or 100 ladies to aid in receiving calls. The following committees were also appointed: On refreshments, Mrs. M. L. Garver, Mrs. Sadie Guthrie, Miss Mary Heller, Mrs. John Reese and Miss Mary Brown. On decoration of rooms, Miss Annie Burroughs, Mrs. J. E. Colter, Miss Artie Smith, Miss Anna Slayden, Miss Berdine Davidson.

Brief reports were also received from the ladies who had been canvassing for books for the library. Some members of the committee reported that a number who intended to donate books were not at home when called on. If all who desire to give books will drop a card to the general secretary of association, will see that they are called for at once.

POLICE COURT.

J. L. Shaw and William Quinan paid $5 for being drunk the day before.

W. W. Kingdom was arraigned for not putting up his fine for violating the liquor ordinance. He was landed in the cooler, glad enough to get out by paying $25.

Chas. T. Brass had been, and was fined $5. He had no money and his honor suspended execution long enough to allow him to leave the city.

John Hamler was brought before his honor on the charge of vagrancy. He was a tough customer and the execution of his sentence was gladly suspended if he would leave the city.

Collections amounting in all to $308 were turned in by officer Jap Marlette from the following persons: violators of liquor ordinance, Bob Johnson, F. M. Laughlin, F. Febbs, F. Delaware, T. P. Hunter; prostitutes, Blanche McKenley, Pearl Daily, Nettie Day, Birdine Burgess, Lee Hanley, Gertie Hall, Roy Hall.

SHE CAUGHT HIM.

Near three months ago Mr. R. Huls came to this city. He is from Carlinville, Illinois, and the son of the sheriff of that county. He gained employment on the D. M. & A., and worked there until last Monday when a lady appeared on the scene. Her name was Miss Alice T. Taffin, of Carlinville, a daughter of the ex-sheriff of that county. She had recently gained knowledge of Mr. Huls, and was after his arrest. She claimed that he had proved false to her.

Her arrival became known to him and he left for Windell. Deputy Sheriff Brown was detailed after him. Arriving at Windell Mr. Huls had left for the Territory. Mr. Brown started for Arkansas City, and found Huls there, and returned Saturday evening. About 9 o'clock that night the couple were married in the sheriff's office by Judge Jewett. They left for their native town yesterday morning.

IN THE PROBATE COURT.

Saturday night, his honor married R. S. Huns and Alice L. Tappen, both of Carlinville, Ill.

Sunday night, H. B. Duplain and Lolla M. Wintredge, both of Wichita.

Yesterday, R. A. Simmons and Carrie Fremman, both of Wichita.

Marriage license was issued to D. S. Potter and Alvie E. Winter, both of Cheney.

Yesterday the will of the late Miss Laura Cobb was admitted to probate; as was also the will of the late Dr. Russell, Mrs. Russell being appointed executrix.

THE DARK AND THE BRIGHT SIDE OF WICHITA.

The Rev. Chas. J. Adams remarked to a reporter of the Eagle incidentally yesterday that when through with his lectures on "The Dark Side of Wichita," upon which subject he will deliver one more lecture, he will deliver one on "Bright Side of Wichita."

The present course is meeting with the most favorable attention. The church is crowded every Sunday night. There is much to say on the dark side. There is also much to say on the bright side. There cannot be deep shadows without bright lights.

A GOOD AND PUBLIC-SPRITED IDEA.

It was decided last night at the meeting of the St. John's Sunday School Teachers' Union, that a treat be given on New Year's eve to the boot-blacks and news-boys of Wichita. Our merchants and others will be requested to contribute, and they will no doubt do so gladly and liberally.

The committee having the matter in charge are: Rev. Chas. J. Adams, pastor, Mrs. J. E. Eaton, Mrs. L. Dixon, Mrs. H. Evans, Mrs. Martin Heller, Mrs. Reed, Mrs. Rudolph.

REVIVAL SERVICES.

Major Rann addresses large audiences every afternoon and night. Many who wished to hear him Sunday night were not able to secure standing room in the large hall.

He will give a special sermon tonight to unconverted men alone. It is hoped there will be a good attendance.

YANKEE KITCHEN.

The Golden Rule society will open a Yankee Kitchen in the parlors of the Presbyterian church on Friday evening, Dec. 10.

Supper to be served at 5:30 p. m. for business men.

"Everybody's" supper served at a later hour.

Bill of fare to contain the following:

Boston baked beans.

Pumpkin pie.

Shast ginger cake.

Boston brown bread, etc., etc., home-made articles.

Price, 40 cents a single supper and 75 cents a pair.

Let those who want to see how their great-grandmother kept house and see her table come.

MR. COPE.

Guardian, Manchester, Tenn: Mr. Cope certainly understands his business, to say the least. No woman could softer plead than his Calantha, no mother more earnestly contrast than his Hernan. The audience wept during this part of the recital. The climax was reached when Damos in his frenzy seized the trembling Lucilla, who had killed his master's horse to save his life.

Mr. Cope appears here for the benefit of the K. of P. Band.

A good band must be sustained and encouraged, and every business man should buy one or more tickets for this first-class entertainment.

GOING HOME.

Sunday evening eight of the prisoners who had been sentenced to the state penitentiary were transferred from the county jail to their future residence.

Among the number were the two murderers, McIntock and McKinney, who were driven to the depot in a hack under charge of Under Sheriff Brown and Deputy Donnelly. Sheriff Hays followed in a hack with the others. They left by the 8 o'clock train over the Ft. Scott.

THE GROWLER.

Another bright and spicy candidate for public favor reaches our table in the shape of a Sunday morning society and literary journal for Wichita, published and edited by W. H. Grattan and Ridge Conely, with the euphonious title of the "Sunday Growler."

The first number, we are compelled to say, has vastly more pleasantness and happy articles than growls, but we suppose when it gets down to work fairly its vigogne of a scowling face and two bull dogs constant will prove no misnomer.

ANOTHER WHOLESALE HOUSE.

Blakemore & Co. will open up in the Hacker & Jackson building a wholesale and commission house for the handling of oysters, fish, fruits, nuts and general produce. Their arrangements at Baltimore and New York for fish in season and foreign fruits being on an extensive scale they announce that they will be prepared to furnish by the car load lot. The house will do no retailing whatever.

CONTRACTS AWARDED.

The contract for doing the carpenter work on the building to be occupied by the crackery factory has been awarded to Colly & Wright. The stone and brick work will be done by Hocken & Schry of Leavenworth. They will commence work at an early date. The foundation will be completed today.

DAUGHTERS OF VETERANS, ATTENTION.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Sons of Veterans will hold a meeting at the residence of J. S. Risor, Tuesday evening, Dec. 7th. A prompt attendance is requested. The advisory committee are requested to be present as a question of importance is to be discussed. EMMA RIZOR, President.

DISTRICT COURT.

After the hearing of motions and dispositions of some routine business, the case of Julia P. Munger vs. Lizzie Adams was heard but the judge has not yet given his decision.

In the afternoon a case was heard that had been brought to this court from Butler county.

IMPORTANT MEETING.

All the members of the Woman's Relief Corps are requested to meet at Mrs. Dr. Stover's residence on North Main street, today at 2:30 o'clock. There is some special business to attend to, and it is hoped that there will be a good attendance.

SANITARY BOARD.

The State Sanitary board will meet in this city tomorrow at the county building, and continue the session until Thursday night. Governor Martin is expected to be in attendance. A program of the meeting was published some weeks ago.

ATTENTION G. A. R.

A full attendance is desired tonight; election of officers. Jo. M. FISHER, P. C.

Mr. W. H. Parkinson returned from Sangamon county, Ill., Sunday evening, where he had gone to bring his aged mother. Mr. Parkinson was born and raised in that county, and in reply to a question he said that his father, who is now living and in his 80th year, came to Sangamon county in 1882, and that the first time his father ever saw Lincoln he was standing in front of the little store of which the last Century gives such a graphic account, studying that honored copy of Kirham's grammar. Mr. P. says his father remembers vividly all the days of Lincoln's early manhood and the campaigns in which his navigation of the Sangamon and internal improvements generally were the leading political questions of the day.

We are very much obliged to our West Side evening contemporary for its kind words and commendations. In saying that we would give eight columns of message this morning, the writer meant, no doubt, eight additional columns of telegraph. The message, which is coming as we write, is expected to occupy from thirteen to fourteen columns. However, we think we can safely promise the Resident that the Eagle's this morning will contain the most correct and complete report of the message of any paper in Kansas, if not in the west.

Messrs. M. H. Shea and E. C. Cramer, of Burlington, Kansas, were in the city yesterday. They were here some months ago and invested in real estate and were dealing it away yesterday at a big profit. They seem to think that Wichita is booming after taking a few peep up and down the streets where so many new buildings have been erected recently.

Last evening about 7:30 a horse hitched to a buggy ran up the alley between North Main and Water. At the corner of the N. G. A. B. building the carriage was upset and the horse and contents were thrown out and were carried into Pink's candy store. Shortly afterward the owner was searching for the runaway horse with a lantern, but up to a late hour had not succeeded in his search.
